HR in Hospitality® Conference New Dates and Sessions

HR in Hospitality® announces new March dates and shares details about its highly anticipated 2013 program.

Palm Beach Gardens, FL – July 10, 2012 – The National HR in Hospitality® Conference, the only human resources conference specifically for the hospitality industry, will host its 7th Annual event March 11 - 13, 2013 at Caesars Palace, Las Vegas.

The National HR in Hospitality® Conference, designed to help attendees properly handle HR issues, will provide legal guidance straight from experienced attorneys to help professionals avoid lawsuits and audit fines. In addition to employment law attorneys, speakers will include top HR leaders from around the nation plus industry experts from Cornell University School of Hotel Administration and Cornell University ILR School.

“HR in Hospitality® is the only event that delivers practical and legal HR guidance for the hospitality industry,” says JoAnne Kruse, HR in Hospitality® Conference Chair. “Anyone who handles any aspect of HR or employment law for a hospitality organization should start making plans to attend.”

The 2013 event will offer multiple plenaries including 50 HR Tips in 50 Minutes and 50 Legal Tips in 50 Minutes. The conference additionally plans to provide a wide assortment of sessions, roundtable discussions, hot-topic panels, networking opportunities and a two-day Expo. Sessions will cover a variety of topics such as:

- Wage-and-hour audits
- Affirmative action plans
- Incentive compensation
- Sexual harassment
- HR technology
- The presidential election's impact on the NLRB

Registration for the event is now open.
